15 March 2024

This week we started by welcoming Tara Birch into school to run some Skylark sessions with Forms IV, V & VI. Tara has become a 'Top Voice' on LinkedIn and runs her own culture change consultancy firm. She joined us to speak to the girls about how important kindness is and how one makes a choice on social media whether to send positivity or negativity out into the world. During lockdown, whilst on furlough, Tara started creating quick napkin doodles with positive messages. She posted them on LinkedIn to cheer up her work colleagues and before long she had over 20,000 LinkedIn followers and it has led to a new career! The girls loved creating their own napkin notes with positive messages and have also taken away a kindness bingo game to do this week!

I have been out and about this week. Twice with Form IV to cheer them on whilst they played netball, firstly in a tournament on Tuesday and then the whole class played at Northwood College on Thursday. The girls were fabulous and they show a lot of promise, bravo!

Today I have been with Form III at Celtic Harmony Camp learning all about life in the prehistoric eras. They enjoyed hunting and gathering, cooking, den making and learning how to trade! Well done to Simran who managed to end the trading session with goods far more valuable than she started with... a future The Apprentice candidate for sure!

Thank you to Form IV and Miss Francis for a fabulous assembly all about inventors on Wednesday. I had no idea that windscreen wipers were invented by a woman. This was followed by my presentation about secondary transfer for the Form IV parents.

We had a very successful Open Morning on Thursday with all the visitors commenting on how great and confident the Form VI guides were. I am very grateful to all of you who are facilitating your girls coming to school tomorrow, they really do help our visitors see just how special our school is.

Have a great weekend!

Sports Report

Gayhurst netball tournament

On Tuesday a team from Form IV went to Gayhurst School to take part in their first ever netball tournament. They braved the awful weather and after a slightly nervous start played themselves into the tournament, competing like the confident netballers they are! Congratulations to Mylah, Lila, Charlotte, Chloe, Holly and Serena for showing such resilience and determination. Mylah was player of the tournament for her calm attitude and great shooting!

Form IV netball match vs Northwood College

Yesterday Form IV visited Northwood College for a series of five a side netball games. The girls played wonderfully and with so much flair and confidence. They also worked well as a team, passing the ball between them, using all their players in attack and defence and encouraging each other throughout. Congratulations to all for a well-earned victory and to Chloe, Anaya and Gurlaabh who were the players of the match.
